Fall II Sessions:

December 17 and 18

January 7 and 8

Join this veteran welder in designing small sculptures over a weekend. Practice cutting and basic welding techniques, while creating artworks from found objects. No experience needed.

Produce original metalworks in the Crealdé foundry over the weekend, under the direction of veteran artist David Lee Cumbie, Sculpture Garden Curator and Sculpture Studio Manager

David Lee Cumbie is a prominent award-winning sculptor and active member of the Central Florida arts community for more than 30 years. At Crealdé, he directs the Sculpture Studio and Central Florida's only community-based bronze foundry. He also is the curator of the school's Contemporary Sculpture Garden.

■ Register in person at the Crealdé main campus at 600 St. Andrews Blvd., Winter Park, FL 32792, or by phone 407-671-1886, or register online at www.crealde.org

Crealdé School of Art is a community based nonprofit arts organization established in 1975. It features a year-round curriculum of over 125 visual arts classes for students of all ages taught by a faculty of more than 40 professional artists. Crealdé's main campus offers two galleries and an outdoor sculpture garden. Crealdé's second campus, the Hannibal Square Heritage Center, pays tribute through its permanent collection to contributions of Winter Park's historic African-American community, as well as hosting visiting exhibitions. A limited number of classes are also held at the Jessie Brock Community Center in Winter Garden.
