Crealdé School of Art is a community based nonprofit arts organization establish in 1975. It features a year-round curriculum of over 125 visual arts classes for students of all ages taught by a faculty of more than 45 professional artists. Crealdé's main campus offers two galleries and an outdoor sculpture garden. Crealdé's second campus, the Hannibal Square heritage Center, pays tribute through its permanent collection to contributions of Winter Park's historic African-American community, as well as hosting visiting exhibitions. A limited number of classes are also held at the Jessie Brock Community Center Winter Garden.
